

- a. Rest. Mental and physical
 - b. Timely termination of pregnancy
4. Cosmetic treatment, "symtomatic treatment (lip stick)"
very dangerous if the treatment is looked for not more than effect of lipstick to the lady.
- a. Diet : low salt, high protein diet, high vitamin content diet
 - b. Antihypertensive: e.g. methyl dopa, calcium channel blockers, just to keep maternal danger away.
 - c. Diuretics in pathological severe oedema (monosymptomatic Gestosis)
Furosemid for few days only.
 - d. Supportive therapy: Vit. B complex, calcium, digoxin if heart failure
 - e. Nitric oxide: Donors skin patches can be used to support the fetus in utero to avoid severe prematurity

NR : Disappearance of symptoms of EPH - Gestosis should be a side effect of treatment to keep the baby's condition as good as possible