

WOMEN'S REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH COURSE

This is a 6 days-course conducted at CSPP (Center for Study of the Pathophysiology of Pregnancy), each day includes 3 sessions with 2 breaks:

Objectives:

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Differentiate high from low risk pregnancy.
- Outline the general principles of management of high risk cases.
- Implement general principles of care in their daily management.
- Appreciate the role of CSPP in reducing maternal morbidity and mortality.

Course Plan

Saturday:

08:30-09:00	Maternal Mortality (Global View) & Identification of Risk.
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break.
10:45-12:45	2006's Egypt's Report in Maternal Mortality.
12:45-13:00	Coffee Break.
13:00-15:00	Neonatal Assessment and Resuscitation.

Sunday:

08:30-10:30	Classification: Mild & Severe E.P.H. Gestosis.
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break.
10:45-12:45	E.P.H. with Convulsion.
12:45-13:00	Coffee Break.
13:00-15:00	Drugs Used in E.P.H. Gestosis.

Monday:

08:30-10:30
10:30-10:45
10:45-12:45
12:45-13:00
13:00-15:00

Heart Disease with Pregnancy. Coffee Break. Diabetes. Coffee Break. Anaemias with Pregnancy.

Tuesday:

08:30-10.30

10:30-10:45

10:45-12.45

12:45-13:00

13:00-15:00

Antepartum Haemorrhage.

Coffee Break.

Postpartum Haemorrhage.

Coffee Break.

Perinatal Morbidity And Mortality.

Wednesday:

08:30-10.30

10:30-10:45

10:45-12.45

12:45-13:00

13.00-15.00

Intrauterine Growth Retardation: Diagnosis - Management.

Coffee Break.

Recurrent Miscarriage, High Risk Pregnancy.

Coffee Break.

EPH-Gestosis Updated.

Thursday

Clinical: 4 Groups Rotating among Labour Ward - ICU - High Risk Pregnancy Wards - Ultrasound Department. Clinical rounds will be under supervision of a specialized qualified team of faculty staff members.