newer modalities of early detection, prevention and

about the Conference

The 43rd World Congress on Clinico Patho Physiology of Pregnancy is an event to be held in association of the Organisation Gestosis. This is an Organization established with the intension of curbing the menace of pregnancy pathogenesis through research and knowledge .To begin with it was exclusively dedicated to research related to "Gestosis" but gradually it extended to encompassing abnormalities of pregnancy. This forum is an international body made up of stalwarts and experienced physicians in the field of pregnancy pathogenesis. It was indeed a great honor for Dr. Sanjay Gupte, the President of FOGSI when Late Professor Ernst Theodor Rippman invited him to chair the organization for the year 2010. The National Eclampsia Registry had been initiated by then for an year and it was befitting to host this conference in India. Maternal Mortality in India is the most distressing issue we as Gynecologists face and feel responsible for. We know High Risk Pregnancy is the most contributing factor. This conference will act as a forum to have brainstorming and updation related to newer modalities of early detection, prevention and treatment of pregnancy pathogenesis. We have many international experts in the field as faculty for the conference. This will help us to reach the desired goal. The Conference also will act as an appropriate forum for practitioners of High risk Obstetrics in and outside the country.

EPH -Gestosis is not, never was and never will be one single disease. It is a SYNDROME, an appearance of signs and symptoms which might be present singly or combined, which might be independent of each other or related by its cause. पूँत most cases the causes for these signs and symptoms are not known. For this reason no one, single therapy, effective identically पूँत every case, is possible. Each therapy has to be adjusted to the individual cause(s) of EPH-Gestosis.
